

LIST OF REFERENCE BOOK for
KEEPING A TRAVEL JOURNAL: WORD AND IMAGE IN TUSCANY WITH JANET FREDERICKS

Mango Baskets and Rickshaw Blessings

A compendium of Travel Journals by Janet Fredericks

This is a delightful book highlighting the artist's drawings from around the world including Ethiopia, Crete, Haiti, Italy, France, India, Iran, and the US.

64 full color pages of drawings. Spiral bound. 6 x 8". Signed by the artist.

$25 includes shipping

Available only from the artist: www.janetfredericksstudio.com

Click here:

https://www.janetfredericksstudio.com/store/p31/Mango_Baskets_%26_Rickshaw_Blessings.html

Seeing Venice, An Eye in Love

An Inner Travelogue with 94 Drawings by Fredericks Franck

Codhill Press, New Paltz, NY

With just pencil and gray wash, he captures the energy of a place, the people, and with abundant humor.

Sara Midda's South of France, A Sketchbook

by Sara Midda

Workman Publishing, NY

This is a sweet little book of sketches of everything from landscapes to patterns to shoes...a pure delight. It will make you want to draw everything.

Any books by Paul Hogarth is inspiring. He gives you permission to be playful and imaginative. Many of his books are out of print but available by sellers of used books. He is one of my favorite teachers.

Drawing People

Drawing Architecture, A Creative Approach by Paul Hogarth

Creative Pencil Drawing

America Observed

The Mediterranean Shore, Travels in Lawrence Durrell Country

* my favorites

Errol Barron is not only a master of drawing architecture but his drawings can be playful and loose. You can learn a lot from these little books chock full of drawings.

Observation

sketchbooks, paintings and architecture of Errol Barron

Tulane School of Architecture

New Orleans Observed

drawings and observations of america's most foreign city

Errol Barron

Tulane School of Architecture